

'Getting the Houses in Order': agenda-setting, policy-making, and legislating in the House of Lords

Keynote speaker:

'The House of Lords Act: An unimportant act?'

Chris Ballinger (Academic Dean and Official Fellow, Exeter College, Oxford)

'The Labour Party and the House of Lords Reform: 1983-2017' (Toufik Abdou, PhD student, University Sorbonne Nouvelle – Paris 3)

'The purpose and the future of the House of Lords: The view of an historian and working peer' (Professor Lord Kenneth Morgan, House of Lords; King's College, London)

'The House of Lords Reform: Insiders' Views' (Carole Taylor, BSc PhD, Parliamentary Assistant)

'The impossible transformation of the House of Lords?' (Céline Lageot, Professor of public law, University of Poitiers)

'Parliamentary Groups in The House of Lords: peculiarities and twilight zones' (Damien Connil, Research fellow in law and social sciences, University of Pau - Pays de l'Adour)

'The House of Lords and the UK Constitution: From Human Rights to Brexit' (Elizabeth Gibson-Morgan, Professor of British studies, University of Tours)

'The Lords as the specialised human rights House? A case study of prisoners' voting debates' (Anne Cousson, Senior Lecturer in British studies, University of Poitiers)

11 OCTOBRE 2019

Université de Poitiers

Salle de conférence I-Médias, UFR Lettres et Langues